15th November 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,

This month is Non-fiction November where we are celebrating non-fiction authors and their books. This year, the theme is communication and how we communicate with one another. We are focussing on the author Andy Seed and his series of books, 'An interview with'.

Please see attached details about the competition that your child has expressed an interest in taking part in. However, it is not compulsory. If your child wishes to take part, follow the instructions below and return your child's completed entry to their class teacher by Tuesday 29th November.

We look forward to seeing their entries!

Kind Regards,

Mrs Robertson

Write and illustrate an 'Interview with ...'

Have you ever wondered what it might be like to talk to an animal you are fascinated by or chat with a famous person from the past?

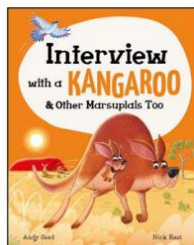

Open to 5-12-year-olds living in the UK, we are inviting each child to choose either an animal or historical character and create an illustrated interview with them in a Q & A format, to be presented on one side of either A4 or A3. The child's name, age and school should be clearly printed on the reverse side of their entry.

We hope that children will enjoy researching their animal or person of choice. The entries should be submitted to your child's class teacher by Tuesday 29th November 2022. They will be judged on their originality, creativity and presentation, according to age (5-7, 8-10, 11-12).

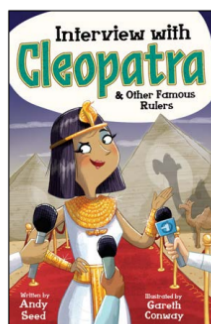

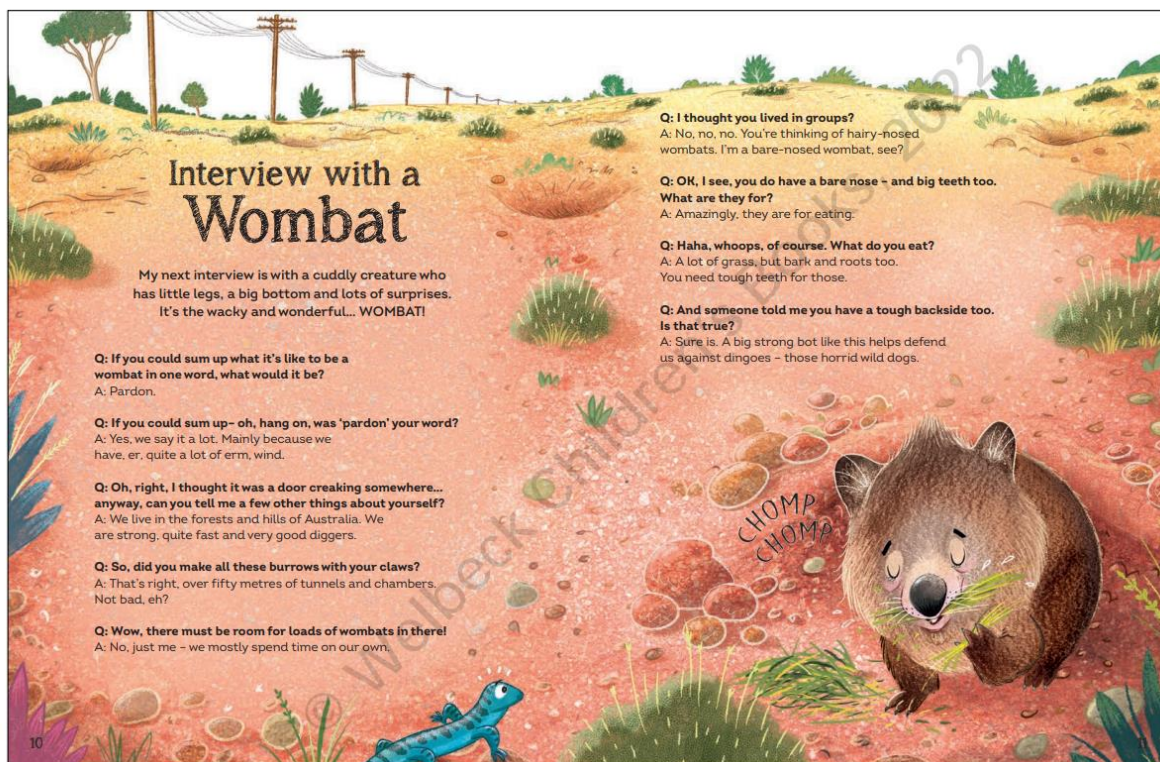

The selection of three age category winners and an overall winner will be made by author Andy Seed and illustrators Nick East and Gareth Conway. Prizes of bundles of signed books will be awarded to the three category winners. The overall winner will also receive either a virtual or an in-person visit by Andy Seed.
