Free Early Learning and Childcare for Two Year Olds

The entitlement begins from the school term following the child's second birthday.

Children born in the period:	Become eligible for funding at the start of term beginning or following:	School Term
1 January - 31 March	1 st April	Summer
1 April - 31 August	1 st September	Autumn
1 September - 31 December	1 st January	Spring

Up to 570 hours free early learning and childcare at a registered early years provider.

Once eligible, entitlement is for the whole academic year and is not rechecked so your child can continue to access their place, even though your circumstances may change.

The hours can be spread evenly over the year and can be taken as a maximum of 15 hours a week over up 38 weeks in a year, or stretched with fewer hours in a week over more weeks in a year.

Since September 2014 this scheme has been available to claimants in receipt of Working Tax Credit provided annual income (as assessed by HM Revenue & Customs) does not exceed £16,190.
